Mrs. Dick McDonald reports her husband to be able to stand on his feet a little after being in a Roswell hospital for a month with a broken hip.

The pupils of the grades gave an entertainment Friday night to promote interest in the sale of Thrift Stamps. Each pupil prepared and delivered their speech, which was very good. Four from each room had a place in the contest. Gertrude Cox won the prize in Miss Reed's room; Katherine Johnson in Miss Beckett's room, and Verona Ross in Mr. Farrar's room. During the evening the High school students sang patriotic and national songs and the "Marsaillaise".

W. Davis and son, E. W. Davis, of Millers View, Texas, are guests of Mr. Davis' daughter, Mrs. Nora Ransbarger.

Mrs. Dan Beckett is with her sister, Mrs. Lee Turknott, who is very ill in Artesia.

Charlie Mece and Mr. Barlow of Artesia are in town on business today.

Teachers elected for Loving schools for the coming fall and winter term are Professor Laidlaw, Mrs. Miller, Miss McKown and Mrs. Maude Wyman Jenkins. A splendid corps of well qualified up-to-date educators.

Mrs. Maude Wyman Jenkins, of Loving, has taken up the work of county agent for the gardening, poultry, and various other boys' and girls' clubs. She will visit the clubs at Artesia, Hope and, in fact, all over the county in the interest of the work.

Two hundred and seventy-four more men from New Mexico must be furnished Uncle Sam for the next call, May 15th.

Don't be a spender. Be a Saver. Buy War Savings Stamps.

A. E. Joiner was an overnight visitor in Carlsbad, continuing on to his home at Clovis this morning.

Meat is as Necessary as Steel and Ships

Food is the first essential of the fighting forces.

The American farmer and the packer have met every war emergency, and have promptly furnished an adequate supply of wholesome meat.

No other industry can claim a better record of war time efficiency.

Swift & Company has shipped to the United States Government and the Allied Nations,

Over 12,000,000 Pounds (400 carloads) per week, of beef, pork, and lard, since January 1, 1918.

In one week recently we shipped 24,000,000 Pounds (800 carloads) and the demand is increasing.

Our profits are limited by the Food Administration to 9 per cent on investment in the meat departments. (This means about 2 cents on each dollar of sales.) No profit is guaranteed.

We are co-operating with the Government to the best of our ability.

The embargo on the shipment of monuments having been lifted, the Livingston estate expect to soon receive their monument ordered for the late Morgan Livingston. It is a massive piece of marble and will be by far the most expensive and imposing piece of work in this part of the country. The base has been built for some months, waiting the arrival of the stone.

Mrs. A. C. Geer is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. John Moore, from her home on the old Schneider place, south of town.
